hugs, handcuffs, and hearsay

ACTS 21:17-35

We can accomplish so much more when we don’t worry about one of us getting the credit for the good work!

Church, we must never confuse confident voices with reliable witnesses.

This was liberty
bending low for love.

Now, remember this:
knowing where someone has
been does not mean you know
what someone has done.
Love checks before it charges.

Church, a painful interruption
may still serve God’s purpose.

Kill one rumor.
