healthy church

Acts 4:32-37

Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold...

...and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. Thus Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Barnabas (which means son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus, sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

The background features a dark blue and green color scheme. At the top, there is a network diagram with a central node and many lines radiating outwards to smaller nodes. Below this, several maps are layered on top of each other, showing various geographical features and street patterns. The text is overlaid on this background in a large, white, sans-serif font.
