

The Gospel of John: Jesus the Good Shepherd

Pastor Daniel Olson

Text: John 13:1-20 (page 900)

Jesus always loves to the end. (John 13:1)

Serving wasn't something Jesus did, it was who He was. (John 13:2-6)

Jesus' love can be offensive.

We think we're smart. Jesus knows better. (John 13:7-11)

Jesus always knows what He's doing: loving you.

Do you understand what Jesus has done for you? (John 13:12-15)

If we know God's love, we will love.

We are blessed when we actually follow Jesus' example. (John 13:16-17)

Jesus chose to die. (John 13:18-19)

Jesus has given us His love to give. (John 13:20)

1 John 4:16-17

Memory Verse: John 13:14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

Food for Thought for the week of October 28, 2018
(Questions and Scriptures for further study and discussion.)

1. Has someone ever washed your feet? If so, describe the experience OR if not, what you think it would be like.
2. How did the disciples feel about Jesus washing their feet?
3. What was Jesus trying to show His disciples?
4. Why does Jesus say that we are blessed when we follow His example?
5. What are ways that we can "wash one another's feet"?
