Text: 2 Corinthians 3

Our hearts desire is that they'd know, trust and love God!

I need some help here Lord! (2 Corinthians 3:1-3)

Our qualification is inadequacy...really? Get used to it! (2 Corinthians 3:4-5)

What does "ministers of a New Covenant" mean? (2 Corinthians 3:6)

▶ God always establishes a covenant relationship with people that includes law and love.

2 Corinthians 3:7-18

The New Covenant prophesized centuries before Jesus lived, died and resurrected. (Jeremiah 31:31-34)

At the cross of Christ, the impossible happened. (Matthew 27:45-54)

What if the great Bible riddle is solved, and living hope is born in your heart by the New Covenant?

▶ Recalibrate your conscience.

▶ Critique your culture.

▶ Deepen your trust in Christ.

(Questions and Scriptures for further study and discussion.)

1. What is your greatest challenge, as a parent/grandparent or disciple-maker?
2. Why is inadequacy such a significant qualification for effective ministry?
3. What are the components of a covenant?
4. Which do you trend towards: legalism [law] or relativism [love]?
5. What is the difference between the Old Covenants and the New?
6. Why is Christ and His crucifixion and resurrection such a big deal?
7. How does your conscience need to be recalibrated? Just once and you're good?
8. How do you critique your culture? More relativistic or legalistic?
