Paul experienced incredible challenges, hardships, and disappointments in his ministry and yet, we consider him one of God's greatest champions. Why? It's simply because he was willing to trust God to work all of it into His master plan. When writing to the believers at Philippi, he said:

24

“But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel, ¹³so that it has become evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ; ¹⁴and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

25

¹⁵Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill: ¹⁶ The former preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains; ¹⁷but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.

26

¹⁸What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice. ¹⁹For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,”

Phil 1:12-19

“Being tested by God reminds us that our function and task is to be about His business, that our purpose is to be an extension of His nature, an ambassador of His throne room, and a proclaimer of His message.” Max Lucado
