“Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.” Mt 7:15

Jonathan Cahn

Jonathan Cahn

Conflates America with Israel and teaches that the prophecies to/about Israel apply to America.

In his book The Mystery of the Shemitah, Cahn teaches that the Sabbath Year (every 7th year) that God commanded Israel to observe also applies to America and that America is being judged for not observing the Sabbath Year.

Cahn often applies passages like Is 9:10 (that were written directly to Israel) to America – even though it was not written about or to America.

Is 9:10 discusses how God judged Israel for their disobedience by allowing them to be defeated by their enemies. Rather than repenting, Israel boastfully said:

“The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will replace them with cedars.” Is 9:10

“The Lord has sent a word against Jacob, and it will fall on Israel,” Is 9:8

Cahn then claims that the downing of the World Trade Center by Islamists in NYC on 9/11 is the American fulfillment of Is 9:10.

He points to a sycamore tree that was destroyed when the towers fell.

Cahn claims that rather than repenting, America built the Freedom Tower and planted a Norwegian spruce to replace the sycamore that was destroyed – and that will bring God's judgment on America just like Israel was judged in Isaiah's day.

Misspeaking for/about God is a serious sin

“But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die.” Deut 18:20

“I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran. I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.” Jer 23:21

“You shall not add to the word that I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the Lord your God that I command you. ... ³² Everything that I command you, you shall be careful to do. You shall not add to it or take from it.”

Deut 4:2; 12:32

“Every word of God proves true; He is a shield to those who take refuge in him. ⁶ Do not add to his words, lest He rebuke you and you be found a liar.” Prov 30:5-6

“I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book, ¹⁹ and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.” Rev 22:18-19

Was Jesus “begotten” of God the Father?

A dark, moody photograph of a wolf in the center, looking directly at the camera, surrounded by a flock of sheep. The scene is dimly lit, with the wolf's face and eyes being the primary light source.

“And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.” Jn 1:14

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” Jn 3:16

What does “begotten of the Father” mean?

Greek monogenēs combines mono (only or unique) and genes (of a kind or offspring) Rather than implying a physical birth or a starting point in time, it means “one of a kind” or “uniquely unique.”

Because He is begotten rather than made, Jesus possesses the same divine substance and nature as God the Father.

The term emphasizes that Jesus was not created (like the physical universe, angels, or human beings), but instead, He eternally proceeds from the Father.

Even though Christians are called “sons and daughters” or “children of God,” that status is relational only because they are adopted by God (Rom 8:15-16) – not originally sons and daughters by nature.

Jesus is God’s Son by nature, setting His status apart as singular and unequaled.

“Begotten of the Father” means that Jesus Christ is uniquely related to God the Father as the uncreated, eternal Son who shares the exact same divine nature.

- Jesus is eternally God

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was in the beginning with God.” Jn 1:1-2

“And the angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy – the Son of God.” Lk 1:35

“who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, ⁷ but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men.” Phil 2:6-7

- Jesus is without sin

“He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth.” 1 Pet 2:22

“For our sake He [the Father] made Him [the Son] to be sin who knew no sin, so that in Him [the Son] we might become the righteousness of God [the Father].”

2 Cor 5:21

“but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.”

Heb 4:15

- Rather than being created, Jesus created all things

“All things were made through Him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.” Jn 1:3

“For by Him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities – all things were created through Him and for Him.” Col 1:16

Where did Jonathan Cahn get his unbiblical teaching about Jesus?

The Word of Faith false teachers

However, the WOF false teachers did not invent this heretical doctrine

It was first taught in the 4th century in Alexandria, Egypt by the false teacher, Arius. It is known as Arianism or the Arianism heresy. The heresy has been modernly popularized by the WOF false teachers.

The sheep are in the foreground and background, some looking towards the camera and others away. The overall tone is somber and deceptive, illustrating the concept of false teachers.

Jesus did not become a sinner on the cross and suffer in hell, He triumphed over hell on the cross

“Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it [the cross].” Col 2:15
