Hebrews 10:19-25

“Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

Moses' Tabernacle

Exodus 25

- You can draw near to God with absolute transparency, confident that Jesus saves you and frees you from guilt and self-condemnation.
- You can rest in the fact that He who has begun a good work in you will complete what He started.
- You can hold onto the faith you profess, not because of your grip on it, but because of His grip on you.

And you can encourage and be encouraged by others in your relationship with Jesus as you journey in community.
