THOUGHT TATTOO

Provisions perceived correctly pave a path of Purposeful Influence

What are some provisions in your life that tend to go overlooked or taken for granted?

How have you used your provisions to be a blessing to others?

Has there been a time you or someone you know been without a physical provision (money, food, shelter, job)? How did you remain hopeful or how would you encourage someone else?

WORD OF THE WEEK

Provisions

How do you enjoy God's provisions without becoming self-indulgent?

THINK ABOUT IT...

Do you think our culture values physical provisions (money, food, shelter) over immaterial provisions (time, joy, peace, health)? If so, why?
