

Thought Tattoo:

Love and submission are expressions of compassion,
not examples of control.

How has the biblical concept of submission been misunderstood?

How does Jesus' life and death help us understand what submission looks like?

Is there a deeper theological reason Paul says wives are to submit? Or is this an arbitrary command that could be said in reverse?

(Husbands submit to your wives)

I still staying married and thriving

Colossians 3:18-19: Power Couple

Word of the week

Love

Do you think Paul's command to husband's is too general? Or do you think Paul's command is equally as convicting as it is for wife's?

Think about it...

Why is important to emphasis that spouses are equally valuable despite having different roles?

Trivia of the week

Who/What were three "power couples" mentioned in the sermon?