

Take note:

If you don't set a boundary around your marriage, you'll create a barrier between you and your spouse.

What are some boundaries you've set with your parents as you've gotten older?

How do we forsake the parental relationship to fulfill the marital relationship? Why is it important to do this?

How do we balance setting boundaries and honoring our parents?

staying married and thriving

Ephesians 6:11-13: I Married the Wrong Person

Word of the Week
Prophectic Boundary

What is the significance of Adam's statement in Gen. 2:24?

Think about it...

What are the benefits of setting boundaries?

Trivia of the week

Name the two rabbi's mentioned in the sermon?