

MUNDANE FAITH

Matthew 17:20

"We lovingly invite people into our faith by sharing, showing and living the Gospel."

Thought Tattoo - Your faith should be something worth imitating, not an imitation

Invite

Would you say your faith is worth imitating? If so, why?

Invest

"We invest through intentional discipleship, relational community and leadership development."

Inspire

"We want you to live inspired by the Gospel to invite and invest in someone's life and live on mission."

If faith is a gift, how have you stewarded this gift?

Mundane faith forgets God's provisions. What provisions of God have you forgotten?

How has God strengthened your faith?

MUNDANE FAITH

Matthew 17:29

Word of the Week

D.E.N.I.A.L

How have you embraced interruptions and applied lies? (i.e. relationship, job, secrets)

Think about it...

What is your understanding of the Transfiguration and how does it apply to faith?

Trivia of the Week

What were the four mountains discussed in the sermon?