

INGRAINED FAITH

Hebrew 11:1-12

INSANE Faith

"We lovingly invite people into our faith by sharing, showing and living the Gospel."

Thought Tattoo - Faith is not a landmark, it's a lifestyle

Invite

How have you expressed "insane" faith?

Invest

"We invest through intentional discipleship, relational community and leadership development."

Why is it important to distinguish between faith and hope?

Why should we understand faith as believing God and not believing IN God?

Inspire

"We want you to live inspired by the Gospel to invite and invest in someone's life and live on mission."

Whose faithful example from Scripture as encouraged you?

Word of the Week

F.R.E.D

How has F.R.E.D. tried to erode your faith?
(Fear, Rejection, Emotional Immaturity, Doubt)

Think about it...

What are some misconceptions you've had about faith? (i.e. faith is blind, you can earn faith, you can be saved apart from faith)

Trivia of the Week

Enoch lived by faith and did not see death. Who was the other person in the OT that did not see death?
