Love Everyone, Serve Anyone

Romans 13:8-10 NIV

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You shall not covet,” and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

- Romans 13:8-10

- Romans 13:9

Jesus replied: “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

- Matthew 22:37-40

Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

- Romans 13:10

“It (love) invites us to place ourselves precisely in the position of our neighbors and allow our actions to flow from the question, ‘What would I desire in this situation?’ rather than ‘What ought I to do?’ Love fulfills the Law because those who love do nothing the Law forbids, and more than the Law requires.”
