

The Cape of Courage

God makes me brave ...

so I can do what's right,

even when I feel afraid.

You're growing up, so there are a lot of new things to try. But new things are scary, sometimes. Remember, God is always with you, and He will make you brave enough to try something new!

You'll Need

One towel, blanket, or cape for each person in your family

Directions

- 1. Talk about something new you'd like to try, but feel a little nervous about. If you need ideas, look at the New Things list.
- 2. Everyone puts on a towel, blanket, or cape. It's their Cape of Courage!
- 3. Pray and ask God to help you be brave.

Review Time!

Say With Me Ages 2-3

- Say Together: Be strong and brave! 1.
- Say Together: Try new things! 2.

5. Take the Cape of Courage off until you're ready to try another new thing.

New Things

- Try a new food.
- Say, "Hi!" to a new friend.
- Do something by yourself that you usually get help with.
- Sleep without a night-light.

Q&A Ages 4-Kindergarten

- Is it okay to feel a little scared to try 1. something new? Yes
- 2. If you feel afraid about trying something new, what should you do? Ask God to make me brave and try the new thing.
