APPLICATION QUESTIONS

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” James 1:22 NIV

SUMMARY

Jay Everett taught a message entitled “The Word Begins to Walk” from John 1:14-18. In this message, we finally discover “The Word” is Jesus Christ. From this passage, we learn several things about Jesus that make Him supremely unique.

Read John 1:14-17

1. We learn in verse 14 that the Word (Jesus) is full of grace and truth.

- Do you need to grow more in the area of giving grace to people, or sharing the truth with people?
- How can you take a step to grow in that area?

2. Verse 15 tells us that John the Baptist (“John B”) told people about Jesus.

- Who is someone you know whose life points others to Jesus?
- How might you help others, perhaps even one person, to see and understand who Jesus is?

3. From verse 16 we know that Jesus’ generosity toward us is astounding in the way that He gives us grace upon grace.

- Would you consider yourself to be a generous person? Why or why not?
- Without limiting generosity to just money, how can you become a more generous person overall?
