TALK IT OVER

APPLICATION

1. When Pastor Kenny visually illustrated how parents have 6,570 days to influence their children from birth to 18 years old, what was happening in your mind as you saw this visual and heard that number?
2. If you are a parent with a child (or children) who are not grown yet, what was your biggest takeaway from this message? How can you begin to implement that truth this week?
3. If you are a parent whose child (or children) are already grown, how did this message impact you? What is one thing that you can do to put what you learned into practice?
4. If you’re without children but hope to be a parent one day, what did you learn from this message that will help to prepare you for parenthood? Is there anything that you sense you need to be doing now to prepare you for being a parent one day?
5. Whether you have children or not, how can you be intentional to encourage and walk alongside a parent who is in the midst of those 6,570 days?

PRAYER
