

GODWARD

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Small Group

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” James 1:22 NIV

KICKOFF

What’s something that you bought, only to later regret purchasing it?

SUMMARY

Pastor Frank finished our series in Daniel with a message entitled, “And Finally, The Beginning”. In this message, we looked at the final chapter of Daniel and learned that the end is not really the end, it’s actually just the beginning.

Daniel 12:1-13

TALK IT OVER

APPLICATION

1. What does God want us to know? *The end, no matter how bleak, is just the beginning for the child of God!

- Do you ever struggle to believe that the end of this life isn’t really the end, but rather is the beginning of a new life with God in heaven? If so, why do you think that struggle is present?

2. Why does that matter? *Daniel was greatly concerned about the end...as all men are!

- What is it about the nature of death that is concerning?
- As believers in Christ, what should be our attitude towards death?

3. What does God want us to do? *He told Daniel, go your way till the end! Or go till the end! Live like him!

- Daniel persevered to the end and didn’t give up (even when it would have been very easy). What are you most tempted to give up on?
- How can you reaffirm your commitment not to give up?

4. Why do we need to do it? *If we live like Daniel, we’ll live like Daniel!

- As we’re wrapping up the book of Daniel, what is one main truth that you learned from the life of Daniel that stands out to you?
- How can you apply that truth to your own life?

PRAYER

Pray that we’d apply the truth(s) that we’ve learned in Daniel to our lives!
