APPLICATION QUESTIONS

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” James 1:22 NIV

KICKOFF

Spring is right around the corner 🙌 What is one of your favorite aspects of spring?

SUMMARY

Pastor Kevin Miller taught a message from John 5:39-40 entitled “These Pages Have a Pulse”. In this message, we learned three lessons that apply to our reading of God’s Word.

READ IT

John 5:39-40

TALK IT THROUGH

1. Warning: you can read the Bible and miss the point (see v.39a)

- What is the point of the Bible?
- Why is it easy to read and even memorize the Bible, yet miss the point?

2. God’s Word isn’t about you - it’s about God (see v.39b)

- Why do you believe that people often incorrectly assume that the Bible is about them?
- What would it look like for you to approach the Bible as His story that is about Him?

3. Don’t just read about Jesus, walk with Jesus (see v.40)

- Discuss the difference between simply reading about Jesus and walking with Jesus.
- What can you do to intentionally walk with Jesus more faithfully?
