1. Who should confront someone about their actions?
2. Who should be confronted?
3. What is the expected result?
4. What are the possible undesired results?

How to do it:

CLEAR THE "AIR"

Assess

Income

Re-align

1. Assess
  - a. Pray and look at your own motivation.
  - b. Find what Scripture says clearly about the situation.
2. Inform
  - a. Go to your brother/sister one on one.
  - b. Share the Scripture & the behavior that does not line up.
  - c. Listen & discuss
3. Re-align
  - a. Help your brother/sister come back into line with God's ways.

RESTORE & FORGIVE: If he/she listens, stop here. Forgive & start over each time. -----

4. Clear the AIR #2
  - a. If he/she disagrees, go to one or two trustworthy believers to assess together.
  - b. If you all agree, go to the brother/sister together to inform & re-align.
5. Clear the AIR #3
  - a. If he/she still disagrees, go to the church in humility and together urge your brother/sister to repent.
6. Restore & Forgive
  - a. This is the goal at every step.
  - b. Always leave the door wide open to restore & forgive.
