Outline of Deuteronomy

First Discourse	Review of the Journey	Deut. 1-4
Second Discourse	Restatement of the Law	Deut. 5-26
Third Discourse	Reemphasis of the Responsibility	Deut. 27, 28
Fourth Discourse	Renewal of Commitment	Deut. 29, 30
Final Words	Reminder of Duty	Deut. 31-34

Chapter	Topics for Discourse 2 (Chapters 5-26)
5	The Ten Commandments reviewed
6	Worship God only and reflect His glory
7	Commands concerning the nations in the promise land
8	Remember the promises and blessings God gave (least they forget He gave them)
9	God was giving the land because of inhabitant's unrighteousness not Israel's righteous
	- The golden calf at Horeb
	-The grumbling at Taberna, Massah, Kilbroth
	- Refusal at Kadesh
10	Obey, love and serve The Lord your God
11	Be obedient and reframe from idols
12	Activities in the new land
	- Honor God with what He desires
	- Enjoy the portion God gives
13	Avoiding and exterminating idolatry
14	Regulations on food and tithes
15	Regulations on the Sabbath year (forgive debt and free slaves)
16	Reviewing the 3 required feasts
	- Passover
	- Feast of weeks
	- Feast of booths
17	Verification of witnesses and regulations for a king
18	Levites portion and prophetic information
	- Not from occult mediums
	- Only from God's prophet ("A prophet" is Christ Acts 3:22; 7:37)
19	The cities of refuge and regulations of witnesses
20	Rules for engagement in war
21	Domestic regulations
22	Various regulations of living
23	Events of exclusion from the assembly
24	Divorce and humanitarian regulations
25	Various regulations for harmonious living
26	The offering of first fruits

Themes in Deuteronomy

Yahweh is unique
- 4:35; 6:4; 10;17

Israel is a unique people
- 4:31; 7:6

A unique relationship existed between God and Israel
- 6:5; 29:13; 32:6

Fundamental Truths in Deuteronomy

The necessity of obedience: the Law of God.

The motive for obedience: the goodness of God.

The standard of obedience: the word of God.

The incentive to obedience: the faithfulness of God.

The alternative to obedience: the justice of God.