

Being Thankful That God is Your God

Rev. Lex DeLong / General

Thanksgiving 2023 / Thanksgiving (Holiday) / Psalm 95:1–7; John 10:27–29

Do you listen for, do you hear God's voice?

The heart of true thanksgiving, the heart of Worship demands nothing less than a bending of our will to His and a renewal of our spiritual pilgrimage to His rest.

Notes

11/26 Psalm 95:1-7, "Being Thankful God is Your God," Subtitle: We are His People, Scripture: John 10:27-29

What does it really mean to be thankful, other than a general term for simple appreciation?

Could there be more to thanksgiving, when it comes to God, than what we generally focus on this time of year?

Should such thanksgiving demand a response from us that is deeper than just that simple appreciation?

The heart of true thanksgiving (the heart of Worship) demands nothing less than a bending of our will to His and a renewal of our spiritual pilgrimage to His rest.

The Heart of True Worship:

- ++Worship demands unashamed enthusiasm (Ps. 95:1-2)
- ++Worship demands unarguable acknowledgment (Ps. 95:3-5)
- ++Worship demands unreserved acceptance (Ps. 95:6-7)

- ++Worship demands unrestrained trust (Ps. 95:8-11)

The result is God's rest

The heart of true thanksgiving (the heart of Worship) demands nothing less than a bending of our will to His and a renewal of our spiritual pilgrimage to His rest.
