

The Lamb, the Son of God

Rev. Lex DeLong / General

True Equity and the Greatest Love / Jesus / John 1:19–34

Let all that you are, do, and see point to Jesus who is the One and only Lamb of God, the Christ, God's promise to Israel in the OT, the one and only Son of the living God, the Lamb of God who came to take away the sins of the world.

Notes

02/18 John 1:19-34, "The Lamb, the Son of God," Subtitle: The testimony of the Baptizer, Scripture: Isa. 40:1-5

Who are you? Why do you do what you do? Do you truly see Jesus for who He really is? John the baptist did. He was able to look past the cousin he had known since childhood, and recognized the Messiah, the Savior, the redemption of the world. That is what defined John the Baptists' whole identity and purpose in life. How about you?

Who Are You? (John 1:19-23)

- Let your words point others to Jesus

Why Do You Do What You Do? (John

1:24-28)

Why Do You Do What You Do? (John 1:24-28)

- Let your actions show the glory of Jesus

Do You See the Lamb of God? (John 1:29-34)

Do You See the Lamb of God? (John 1:29-34)

- See that Jesus takes away the sin of the world

John the baptist said, "I am a voice to cry out for others to see Jesus. I want my actions to show how worthy Jesus is. I want others to see that Jesus is the one, the only one who takes away the sin of the world."

Jesus is the one, the Son of the living God.
