ABIDING WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT
David Wilkerson

"God, you're such a safe and powerful place to find refuge! You're a proven help in time of trouble—more than enough and always available whenever I need you. 2 So we will never fear even if every structure of support were to crumble away. We will not fear even when the earth quakes and shakes, moving mountains and casting them into the sea. 3 For the raging roar of stormy winds and crashing waves cannot erode our faith in you. –

- Pause in his presence -

4 God has a constantly flowing river whose sparkling streams bring joy and delight to his people. His river flows right through the city of God Most High, into his holy dwelling places. 5 God is in the midst of his city, secure and never shaken. At daybreak his help will be seen with the appearing of the dawn. 6 When the nations are in uproar with their tottering kingdoms, God simply raises his voice, and the earth begins to disintegrate before him. 7 Here he comes! The Commander! The mighty Lord of Angel Armies is on our side! The God of Jacob fights for us!

- Pause in his presence -

8-9 Everyone look! Come and see the breathtaking wonders of our God. For he brings both ruin and revival. He's the one who makes conflicts end throughout the earth, breaking and burning every weapon of war. 10 Surrender your anxiety. Be still [let go] and realize that I am God. I am God above all the nations, and I am exalted throughout the whole earth. (Psalm 46:1-10).

What a marvelous word. I've read this passage over and over, dozens of times, and I'm still overwhelmed by it. God's Word to us here is so powerful, so immovable. He tells us, "Never again do you need to fear. It doesn't matter if the whole world is in turmoil. The earth may quake, the oceans may swell, the mountains may crumble into the sea. Things may be in complete chaos, a total uproar all around you.

Right now, the whole world is in a fearful time. Nations are trembling over terrorism, knowing no region is immune to the threats. Personal troubles and sufferings are mounting. Yet, in the midst of it all, Psalm 46 echoes to God's people the world over: "I am in your midst. I am with you through it all. My people will not be destroyed or moved. I'm going to be an ever-present help to my church."

God knows we all face deep needs; we all encounter turmoil, temptations, times of confusion that cause our souls to quake. His message for us in Psalm 46 is meant for just such times. He is saying that if we give in to fear, becoming downcast and full of despair, we're living absolutely contrary to His reality in our lives.

It's vital that you grasp what the Lord is telling us in this Psalm. Our God is available to us at any time, day or night. He's continually at our right hand, willing to speak to us and to guide us. And He's made this possible by giving us His Holy Spirit to abide in us. The Bible tells us that Christ Himself is in us, and we are in Him.

I pray this is as much as blessing to you as it has been to me.

~ Pastor Errett

BIBLE STUDY

Pastor Brian will be leading a small group Bible study and prayer time for the next six weeks, beginning on Sunday, January 25th, through Sunday, March 1st, in the Student Center at the church. We will gather together from 5 pm to 6 pm. This is open to everyone to be part of this time together. It will be a focused time to grow in God's Word, pray together, and build meaningful connections with others. After six weeks, we'll take a short break and then come together for another session of Bible study and prayer.

The study we will be discussing is "What Is A Christian?" Ask any group what it means to be a Christian, and we will hear different answers. This Bible Study is to challenge us from simply "knowing about" Christianity to actively living as Christians, characterized by a deep connection with God and His people, radical obedience, and a passionate pursuit of His intended life.

GOLDENLIGHT MEETING 2/5

Goldenlights will meet Thursday, February 5th, at 6pm at The Baron And Beef. All those 55 and older are invited. Register on our website, church app or the sign-up sheet in the foyer.
