

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW:

We are honored that you have joined us for our Sunday event! If this is your first time with us, please find the card inside this bulletin and take the time to fill it out. We want to trade that with you for a free gift and a $5 donation, in your honor, to one of our favorite local charities, Greater Things. As you are leaving, feel free to give it to a pastor or drop it in the offering plate. It is great to have you here!

GREATER THINGS

This ministry that we support is in need of some help this week. First, it is our week to provide the meal and therefore you have a chance to get involved that way. See Pam today. Also, the ministry is in dire need of supplies. See the list on the hallway bulletin board to know what you could donate.

BABY BOTTLES NEED FILLED

We are encouraging you to take as many baby bottles as you can for Life Choices. The goal is to fill them with change or paper money and bring them back filled by October 20th. There are also pamphlets on the back table if you would like more info on this ministry.

CHURCH LANGUAGE- HELP NEEDED

Some of the things that we say here make sense in our context, but maybe you are new to church and just don't understand what we mean. For instance, do you really understand what a devotion is and how to do one? We want to address these, but we need your help knowing what you don't understand. See the sheet on the hallway bulletin board and leave your question or word you may not fully understand.

GIVING INFORMATION:

Amount needed to reach budget: $2,300

Amount recieved last week: $3,691

MISSION STATEMENT

"Keystone Church exists to reach and serve the community, to bring hope and healing across the street and around the world."

THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS:

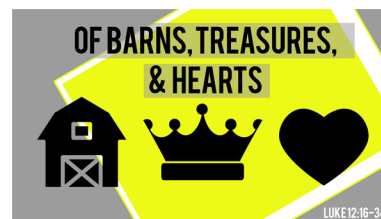

I have two kids. One is 2 and goes in the cryroom each and every week, and the other one is 8 and goes downstairs to Keystone Kids each week. At the end of each Sunday, I can ask them about their experiences and they will tell me of the incredible people they hung out with or the lesson that was taught. I have even heard my son singing at night and when I ask him what he is singing, he tells me its a song they sing in Keystone Kids.

It may not seem like much to you, but I am beyond grateful to those that volunteer their time on Sundays and count it important enough to hang out with my kids so they to can have something relevant happen at church. I am certain the foundations are vital that are being set up now.

It would be silly of me to allow these volunteers to serve me and all I do is drop of my kid and pick them up. So I plan on serving at our Volunter appreciation lunch on October 20th, because I have been served by them. What about you? Do you just expect everyone to give to you, or do you want to show them how much you appreciate those volunteers? Let's talk about that today before you leave.

-Pastor Nate
