

What you need to know

WELCOME!

We are so honored that you have chosen to worship with us here this morning! If this is your first time with us, please locate the card inside this bulletin and take the time to fill out the information there. We would love to trade this with you for a free gift as a way of saying thanks! As you leave the service, just hand that card to a pastor and we will make sure you are taken care of. It is great to have you here!

NEW VOLUNTEER TEAMS

We have started using a new volunteer scheduling service to help balance weekly services. Rather than signing up, we will begin trying to build teams that will serve as little as once a month for each position. This service will communicate via email, text, and the app called Planning Center Services. If you are not on a team currently, please consider joining one today before leaving. See Pastor Nate.

BATHROOM REMODELS ETC.

Do you have experience laying floor, painting, and other general remodeling tasks? We had some money given to remodel our bathrooms to a little more updated look and would like to begin this process soon. If you can help out for an hour or two and are interested in helping with these projects. Please talk to Pastor Nate today before you leave.

DINNER DISCUSSION AND NO MID-WEEK

Tonight at 5pm we will be discussing boards, deacons, and voting that will be implemented as we go self-supporting. Please join us if you would like to be involved with Keystone's goal of going self supporting. Also, we will not be having any mid-week classes this week. Experiencing God will resume November 7th and wrap up in November.

MISSION STATEMENT

Keystone Church exists to reach and serve the community, to bring hope and healing across the street and around the world.

GIVING INFORMATION

Amount needed to reach budget: $1,960

Amount recieved last week: $3,084

(If you would like a copy of the budget, please feel free to ask. We believe in total transparency in our financial records.

THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS:

Deacons are described in the Bible as capable people that serve the congregation in the ministry needs of the church. Many times today, they are defined by churches as a place of authoritative position that dictates the direction of the church and the finances. When you twist the Bible, you end up with bad results. So how do we protect against twisting what the Bible says about other positions and places in the church that will aid in making decisions as we go self-supporting? I think it comes by bringing everyone onto the same page and providing a guideline that will help for years to come, clearly defining what the place we all serve in the church is. That is what has been the topic of our Dinner Discussions. Tonight at 5, we will continue one of these discussions as we look at the portion of our future Constitution and By-Laws that details Deacons and Boards. We really need your input in this discussion and want to hear from you. So would you plan on joining us tonight for this dinner?
