

What you need to know

WELCOME!

We are so honored that you have chosen to worship with us here this morning! If this is your first time with us, please locate the card inside this bulletin and take the time to fill out the information there. We would love to trade this with you for a free gift as a way of saying thanks! As you leave the service, just hand that card to a pastor and we will make sure you are taken care of. It is great to have you here!

GREAT DISCIPLE OPPORTUNITIES

We will be starting a new study in May for our Wednesday night Groups at 7 pm. However, this coming Wednesday, we NEED all hands on deck as we gather to pray over the Easter Egg Hunt with Reclamation Church and Lifespring while doing final preparations. The Manner and Women's worth meetings will be the 24th and 25th.

EASTER EGG HUNT APRIL 20TH

We have been asked to lead the Greensburg Egg Hunt again this year. We have also decided to do things differently. Rather than it being Keystone Church and the City of Greensburg, we have invited the other churches in our city to be a part of this ministry opportunity. So far, we have had 3 other churches planning on joining us on this big day. That means more volunteers and more opportunities! So can you go ahead and block off April 20th for this event? We need you to help us serve our city!

COMMUNITY DAYS VOLUNTEERS REQUEST

The city has requested that we help out with working the ticket booth for Community Days this year. We are needing 3 pairs of people (husband and wife or just two people looking to hang out!) to volunteer to help anywhere between 2-11 for two hour shifts. Talk to Pastor Nate today!

THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS:

I remember when Pastor Tom approached me about starting Keystone Church in Greensburg. I was in college, had just got married, and was wondering what God wanted from my life next. After confirming their was a Primanti Bros in this Greensburg and that God wanted me to join in, Jenna and I joined the team. Back then, Pastor Tom had the dream of starting 3 more churches around Pittsburgh. Life changed that direction for him through a series of events he has shared before.

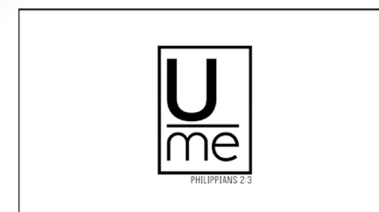

That does not mean that this dream is dead. I don't know the specifics of it all, but I totally support the counseling ministry Pastor Tom is doing now and think he is where God has caled him. But I am proud and thankful of the vision that he handed off to me. Today, I am even more honored that he is preaching the very first message for Keystone as a self-supporting church. He is the founding pastor. Let's plan to hear what he thinks that we need at this moment in our history and be thankful for what God birthed in his heart years ago.
