The Nature of God
Psalm 139
Week 16 August 11, 2019
Pastor Mike Popovich

The worship of God is about declaring the characteristics of God that He has revealed to us about Himself. We can only truly know what He decides to reveal to us.

God Knows Me and My Thoughts

Psalm 139:1-6 NAS

This is God's Omniscience. God knows everything.
The fact that God knows means that God is looking out for us.

God is Everywhere

Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? Psalms 139:7-10 NAS

God is not bound like you and me with time and space. He can see all of time in a single look or He can walk second by second with us through time.

God is Greater Than His Creation

Darkness and light are alike to You. Psalm 139:11-12 NAS

God is not bound or limited by the light or the darkness.

God is the Creator of Me

*For You formed my inward parts; You wove me in my mother's womb. <sup>14</sup> I will give thanks to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Wonderful are Your works, And my soul knows it very well.
Psalms 139:13-15*

The man was created from the very earth itself and the woman was created from the man.

All of humanity was created from these first two human beings.

God creates the soul that will live on into eternity.

God Knows the Future

Your eyes have seen my unformed substance; and in Your book were all written the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there was not one of them. Psalm 139:16 NAS

God's book is referring to the purpose and plan God has for our lives.

We know that entrance into the book of life comes with accepting salvation offered to all by Jesus.

God Knows Me

How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them! <sup>18</sup> If I should count them, they would outnumber the sand. When I awake, I am still with You. Psalm 139:17-18 NAS

God Slay the Wicked Psalm 139:19-22 NAS

When you align your life with God you become painfully aware of those who oppose God.

The call for God to slay them is a call for judgment.

God so hated the sin He will bring us justice.
God so loved the world He died for our sins for our salvation.

God Search Me and Lead Me

Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me and know my anxious thoughts; <sup>24</sup> And see if there be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way. Psalm 139:23-24 NAS

Allow God to lead you each and every day.
