

Psalm 63 (All Campus discussion guide)

Sermon Summary

If there's ever a truer statement it would be that David was close to the Lord. We see this not only when things are going well. We see this when everything has gone wrong. Psalm 63 is just that, a Psalm where David pours out his heart to God. The contrast of being in a wilderness and drawing near to God is powerful. It communicates what David values most. Let's turn our attention to Psalm 63.

Questions for Reflection and discussion

Same as usual for the Know section

Grow

In verse 1, how would you describe the word "seek"? How does this change the way you view your relationship with God?

In verses 2-8, we see a profound picture of worship. What word, phrases jump out to you the most? (For example: "Because your steadfast love is better than life..." in v3a).

The word "cling" in verse 8 means to "stick". When something sticks, nothing else gets in the way. What are some clear examples of this word being lived out in our walk with Christ?

Go

When life is hard, what are some distractions that tend to keep us from worshipping the Lord?

Why is Rejoicing a common theme in Scripture?

What are some messages the world gives regarding satisfaction in life?
Where does David find his satisfaction?
