

Sermon Summary

Romans 8 gives us some much-needed encouragement going into the new year. Nothing can separate us from the love of God. Despite hard times, trials and tribulations, God is for you, and He loves you. He has your best interests in mind, and we can place our hope in Him.

Key Passage: Romans 8:1-2;31;38

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Grow

What is the reality behind the statement “There is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus” in Romans 8:1? How does this change how we view ourselves?

According to Proverbs 24:14 wisdom and hope connect. What is the relationship between both of those truths?

Romans 8:31 tells us that God is for us. How can this truth help us as we navigate through fearful terrain?

Go

What are some practical ways we can remind ourselves of God's love when facing challenges?

How can the understanding of God being "for us" affect our relationships with others?

In what ways can we reflect God's love to those around us, especially during challenging times?