Song When the Saints

Kyla Conner

Lord, I have a heavy burden of all I've seen and know, it's more than I can handle
But Your word is burning like a fire shut up in my bones, and I can't let it go

And when I'm weary and overwrought with so many battles left unfought

I think of Paul and Silas in the prison yard

I hear their song of freedom rising to the stars

And when the Saints go marching in, I want to be one of them

Lord, it's all that I can't carry and cannot leave behind

It all can overwhelm me, but when I think

Of all who've gone before and lived a faithful life

Their courage compels me

And when I'm weary and overwrought with so many battles left unfought

I see the servant Moses in the Pharaoh's court

I hear his call for freedom for the people of the Lord

And when the Saints go marching in, I want to be one of them

And when the Saints go marching in, I want to be one of them

I see the long quiet walk along the underground railroad

I see Harriet awoken to the value of her soul

I see the long hard shadows of Calcutta nights

I see the sister standing by that dying man's side

I see the young girl huddled on the brothel floor

I see the man with a passion come and kicking down that door

I see the man of sorrow and His long troubled road

I see the world on His shoulders and my easy load

And when the Saints go marching in, I want to be one of them

And when the Saints go marching in, I want to be one of them

I want to be one of them

I want to be one of them

⁹ After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

¹¹ And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

¹³ Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” ¹⁴ I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵ For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

¹⁶ They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;

¹⁷ for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Hymn For All the Saints

Kyla Conner

For all the saints who from their labors rest
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed
Thy name O Jesus, be forever blest
Alleluia, Alleluia

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress and their Might Thou Lord their Captain in the well fought fight
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light
Alleluia, Alleluia

O blest communion, fellowship divine
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine
Yet all are one in Thee for all are Thine
Alleluia, Alleluia

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long
Steals on the ear, the distant triumph song
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong
Alleluia, Alleluia

From earth’s wide bounds, from ocean’s farthest coast
Through gates of pearl, streams in the countless host

Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost
Alleluia, Alleluia

Song Holy, Holy, Holy

Kyla Conner

Holy, holy, holy; Lord God Almighty
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity
Holy, holy, holy; all the saints adore Thee
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee
Who was, and is, and evermore shall be
Holy, holy, holy; Lord God Almighty
All Thy works shall praise Thy Name, in earth and sky and sea
Holy, holy, holy; merciful and mighty
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity
