Scripture Reading John 13:1-17

Jane Gunningham

Now before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that His hour had come that He would depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. ² And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him, ³ Jesus, knowing that the Father had handed all things over to Him, and that He had come forth from God and was going back to God, ⁴ got up from supper and laid His outer garments aside; and He took a towel and tied it around Himself.

⁵ Then He poured water into the basin and began washing the disciples' feet and wiping them with the towel which He had tied around Himself. ⁶ So He came to Simon Peter. He said to Him, "Lord, You are washing my feet?" ⁷ Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing, you do not realize right now, but you will understand later." ⁸ Peter said to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no place with Me." ⁹ Simon Peter *said to Him, "Lord, then wash not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!" ¹⁰ Jesus *said to him, "He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet; otherwise he is completely clean. And you are clean—but not all of you." ¹¹ For He knew the one who was betraying Him; it was for this reason that He said, "Not all of you are clean."

¹² Then, when He had washed their feet, and taken His garments and reclined at the table again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done for you? ¹³ You call Me 'Teacher' and 'Lord'; and you are correct, for so I am. ¹⁴ So if I, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I gave you an example, so that you also would do just as I did for you. ¹⁶ Truly, truly I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷ If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

Song Come, All Christians, Be Committed

Ensemble

Come, all Christians, be committed to the service of the Lord
Make your lives for Him more fitted, tune your hearts with one accord
Come into His courts with gladness, all your sacred vows renew
Turn away from sin and sadness, be transformed with life anew
Of your time and talents give ye, they are gifts from God above
To be used by Christians freely to proclaim His wondrous love
Come again to serve the Savior, tithes and offerings with you bring
In your work, with Him find favor, and with joy His praises sing
God's command to love each other is required of everyone
Showing mercy to each other mirrors His redeeming Son
In compassion He has given of His love that is divine
On the cross sins were forgiven, joy and peace are fully thine

Song The Stand

Ensemble

You stood before creation, eternity in Your hand
You spoke the earth into motion, my soul now to stand
You stood before my failure, and carried the cross for my shame
My sin weighed upon Your shoulders, my soul now to stand
*So what can I say, and what can I do
But offer this heart, O God, completely to You*
I'll walk upon salvation, Your Spirit alive in me
My life to declare Your promise, my soul now to stand (Chorus)
I'll stand, with arms high and heart abandoned, in awe of the One who gave it all
I'll stand, my soul, Lord, to You surrendered, all I am is Yours (Chorus)

TODAY'S WORSHIP PARTICIPANTS:

Doug Kelly is preaching and Jane Gunningham is leading worship. Bethany Presbyterian has been Jane's church home since 1984. While she was a global nomad, the faith community here prayed, wrote and provided a strong sense of belonging. Currently Jane is working with families experiencing homelessness, at Vision House in Shoreline. It is a joy to continue that belonging "up close and personal" for the moment and to share in worship with you today
