Women's Conference

Hello Beautiful Ladies,

Welcome to REVIVE 2025! We are so overjoyed that you've chosen to join us for this sacred time of renewal, restoration, and revival. This year's theme, "Chosen, Cherished, and Called" is a divine reminder of who we are in Christ and the incredible purpose He's placed within each of us.

You are Chosen and handpicked by God, set apart for His glory, and created with intentionality and love. You are Cherished, deeply loved and valued by a Father who sees you, knows you, and delights in you. And you are Called, equipped and anointed to walk boldly in your purpose, impacting lives and carrying His light wherever you go.

As women, we wear many hats: daughters, mothers, sisters, leaders, and friends. Life's demands can sometimes leave us weary or uncertain. But here, in this moment, we pause to be filled again. REVIVE is your space to breathe, to worship, to connect, and to be reminded that God has never forgotten your name or your calling.

On today you will hear from dynamic speakers and share in authentic sisterhood. Our prayer is that you leave this conference not just refreshed, but transformed and standing confidently in the truth that you are Chosen, Cherished, and Called for such a time as this. As we gather virtually, let's open our hearts to what God desires to do in us and through us. This isn't just another event. It's a divine encounter. Let's expect revival, restoration, and a renewed sense of purpose as we say "yes" to His call.

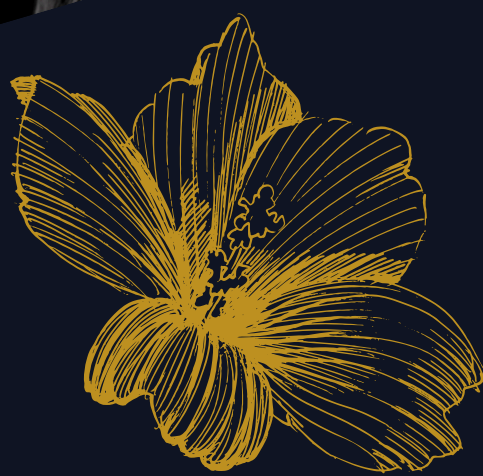

With love and blessings,
First Lady Kynita Winn

First Lady Kynita Winn

First Lady Kynita Winn is a wife, mother, homemaker, teacher, and ministry leader. She serves as the Director of the Women's Ministry at Emmanuel City Church, where she empowers women to deepen their faith, discover their God-given purpose, and live out the mission of "Restoring Strength, Reviving Purpose, and Empowering Women." In her role, she is committed to helping women grow spiritually and step confidently into their unique callings. Alongside her ministry, she supports Pastor Maurice Winn in leading their family including their three children Kayla, Kristina, and Malachi. Before dedicating herself fully to ministry and family, Lady Winn gained extensive experience working as a researcher at the National Eye Institute at the National Institutes of Health. She also contributed to the community through her work in the Prince George's County School System and through her volunteer work as an Emergency Medical Technician. Lady Winn holds both a Bachelor of Science and a Master's degree in Biology from North Carolina A&T State University. Her ongoing passion is to inspire women to grow, thrive, and walk boldly in their divine purpose.

Nicole Barnett

Nicole B. Barnett, MSW, LCSW-C, PMH-C

Nicole B. Barnett is a licensed clinical social worker certified in perinatal mental health (PMH-C). As a clinician and mom who experienced postpartum depression, Nicole has engaged in a variety of maternal mental health education and advocacy efforts over the last 18 years. She is passionate about raising awareness of maternal mental health conditions, particularly in faith spaces and communities of color.

Nicole is also a speaker and an author. Her book Out of the Mouths of Babes: A 31-Day Devotional for Moms shares relatable "mommy-moments" along with powerful biblical truths---perfect for all women, not just moms.

(www.YourMommyMoments.com).

Nicole has been a proud member of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden International for 27 years, where Pastor John K. Jenkins, Sr. is the senior pastor. She is humbled to serve as a deaconess, as well as a co-facilitator in FBCGI's couples ministry alongside her husband of 29 years. They are blessed to parent three young adult daughters.

Pastor Joy Oguntimein

Joy Oguntimein is a Nigerian-American pastor, writer, and speaker known for her vibrant faith and spirit-led leadership. As a pastor at Zion Church, she combines creativity, strategy, and powerful communication to help others discover their God-given purpose. Joy is passionate about mentoring, creating transformative experiences, and building spaces where people feel seen and empowered. Her presence brings energy, purpose, and connection wherever she goes. For Joy, her name reflects her mission: to Be Like Jesus, Be connected with Others, Be Who God Called You to be

Reverend Keionna Neal

Rev. Keionna Neal was born and raised in Towson, Maryland, and currently resides in Abingdon. A graduate of Baltimore County Schools, she earned her B.S. in Psychology from Bowie State University in 1988 and is now pursuing a Master's in Social Work at Morgan State University. Since 2011, she has served as a case manager at a community mental health center in Baltimore City, viewing her work as an extension of her ministry.

Rev. Keionna is married to Pastor Byron Neal, and together they have four children—Brittany, Jada, Keenan, and Taylor—and six beloved grandchildren: Kai, Micaya, Saveah, Kennedy, Israel, and Aubrey.

Licensed in ministry in 1997 under Pastor Ann Lightner-Fuller in the AME Church, Rev. Keionna served in multiple leadership roles, including worship, teaching, prayer, and evangelism. In 1999, the Neal family joined the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, where she and her husband were ordained as Associate Pastors in 2011.

Now serving alongside her husband as Co-Pastor of Faith Worship Center of Baltimore under the covering of Pastor John and Lady Trina Jenkins, Rev. Keionna is passionate about developing dynamic disciples and strengthening families.

Reverend Carolyn Tatem

Rev. Carolyn Tatem, a native of Washington, D.C., accepted Christ at the age of 12 and has loved the Lord ever since. She has been a devoted member of First Baptist Church of Glenarden International for 31 years, where she serves as one of the Associate Pastors under Pastor John K. Jenkins. Additionally, she has been the Director of the Queen Esther Ministry, a discipleship program for women, since 2006.

Rev. Carolyn Tatem met Deacon William Tatem, Jr. while they were both serving in the Youth Ministry. This year, they celebrated 27 years of marriage and are the proud parents of three young adult children.

Rev. Carolyn holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland, and a Master of Science degree from American University. She is currently pursuing a second master's degree at Denver Seminary.

By profession, Rev. Carolyn Tatem is an educator, teaching Business and Technology at a middle school in Alexandria, Virginia. In 2024, she was honored as the Bizworld Educator of the Year. She has also served for several years as a Women's Ministry Trainer with the Lifeway Team. In addition, Rev. Carolyn is the author of five books, including Marriage from A to Z. Together with her husband, she ministers to couples through their Marriage from A to Z Ministry.

Reverend LaVera Manning

Rev. LaVera Manning is a wife, mother, homemaker, minister, teacher and First Lady of the The Heights Church in District Heights, MD alongside her husband Dr. Bobby Manning. “Pastor La’s” passion in ministry is the discipleship and spiritual development of individuals within the local church. She currently serves The Heights in leadership as an Associate Pastor and Director of Ministries as well as the Ladies Ministry, curating and varied events and discipleship efforts for women of all ages.

LaVera holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology from the University of North Texas. Her diverse background in education and the medical field comes out often as she uses her teaching and administrative gifts to facilitate worship services, conferences and retreat sessions.

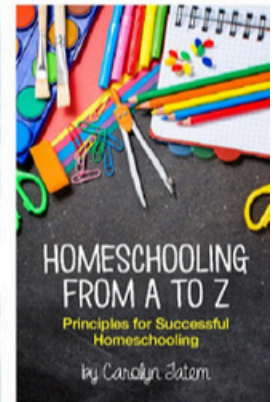

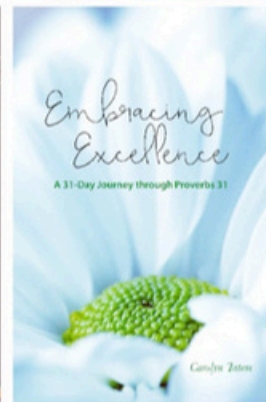

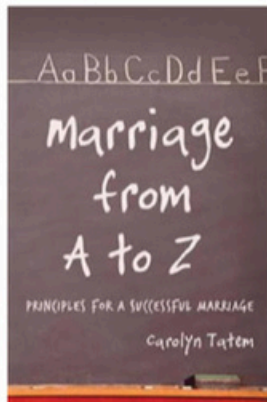

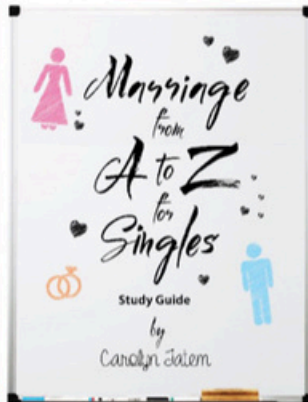

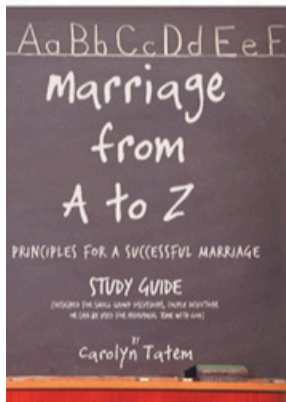

Rev. LaVera currently resides in the Washington, DC area with her husband and three sons, Levi, Reuben and Joseph.
