

Proverbs – Wisdom for Today

Proverbs 29

Jake Allen - 11/29/23

Introduction: Tonight we conclude our series on the Book of Proverbs interesting way. In Proverbs 29, God concludes a major segment of this book in preparing us for the Judgment Seat of Christ and beyond. As we dig in tonight, you will see God highlight something for you regardless of your season of life. Coming out of tonight, God will want you meditating on one question: are you _____ to judge righteous judgment?

Overview:

- The Book of Proverbs has ____ chapters, making Proverbs 29 the _____ to last chapter of the book.
- Proverbs 29 has ____ verses and _____ words.
- Theme of the Chapter: Choosing righteous judgment because you _____ and _____ God more than _____ (Prov. 29:1, 3, 25-26).
- Key Verse: _____
- Three Applications of the Book and the Significance of Proverbs 29:
 - Historical –
 - Doctrinal –
 - Devotional –
- Key Words: Rule; Judge/Judgment; King; Righteous*; Wise/Wisdom; Wicked; Son/Child*
 - There is a specific context to Proverbs 29 of _____ to rule and reign in and through God's righteousness.

Jake's Takes:

1. One day you will have the opportunity to literally rule and reign with Christ here on Earth (Millennial Reign). To prepare and perfect you, God has placed you in positions of authority in your current life _____. He has given you the tools and the opportunities to judge righteously now. We will all give an account of our current rulership at the Judgment Seat.
2. There is no room on the fence with God nor with ruling righteously (Prov. 29:27). Judging righteously requires growth, maturity, and discernment. The key question in making decisions will not be, "_____" but rather, "_____?"

"The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe." (Proverbs 29:25)