Psalm 33

Throughout this series we have heard godly men convey the sheer breadth & depth of the Psalms. Some weeks have been full of anguish, sorrow, pain, and suffering. But a silver lining is found within them that is layered with hope, joy, praise, and ultimate victory in the LORD. For what He did, what He does, and what He will do. Despite our circumstances, it's not about us, it's all about the LORD! With this in mind, tonight's Psalm is a Psalm of praise to close out this awesome series that was quite literally filled with a treasure trove of truth for our church family in 2025.
