When You're Hurt by Those Closest

Enduring hurt from loved ones is one of the most difficult things a son of God could ever face. It was certainly one of the most difficult things the Son of God faced. Tonight, from Psalm 55 we will look at a biblical response to being hurt – what to do and how to move forward.

1. Historical Application: David and _____

- Ps. 55 Verbiage
 - Betrayal of a Friend (v. 12-14)
 - “terrors of death” (v. 4)
 - “his words...drawn swords” (v. 20-21)
- Background

2. Doctrinal Application: Jesus and _____ ... and Israel and the _____

3. Devotional Application: _____ and _____

- Because of sin and our flesh, church/family hurt _____ happen
 - 2 Tim. 3:12 –
- What do we do?
 - We cry out (v. 1-2)
 - We get real with God – even if it ain’t pretty (v. 4-5)
 - We cast all our burden upon the LORD. Don’t hold onto any of it.
 - The LORD’s yoke and burden are far easier than yours. (Matt. 11:28-30)

“Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.” Psalm 55:22
