

Treasury of the Psalms

PSALM 25

Sean Neal

10/15/2025

The culmination of our lives is the result of the _____ we make along the way, the paths we choose to walk in our thoughts, desires, and actions. Psalm 25 teaches us through David's example how to be certain we are choosing God's ways, walking down God's paths, even in the most difficult seasons of life.

David's own testimony of God's ways. He kept them and they are _____ (2 Sam. 22:22-23, 31).

God's testimony of David concerning his ways (1 Kings 3:14).

David made it a habit to _____ of the Lord which way he should go before he made decisions (1 Sam. 23:2, 4; 30:8; 2 Sam. 2:1; 5:19, 23; 11:2, 3).

_____ people desire not to even know God's ways (Job 21:14).

_____ corrupted the ways of God's creation (Ez. 28:15).

If we are going to choose God's ways (walk in God's paths) the 1st path God will lead us to is:

1. A path of _____ (Ps. 25: 7, 8, 11, 18).

2. A path of _____ (Ps. 25:9).

3. A path of _____ (Ps. 25:12-14).