

Job was a faithful man of God whose life was under heavy assault by the enemies of God and those who were his closest friends. Job's friend Bildad asks him how one can be justified and clean before God as Job was claiming of himself (Job 25:4). Job replies with six questions (Job 26:1-4) which are a good measure of how anyone's Godly life can find _____ in the presence of God when everything else is stripped away (Rom. 14:10-12). May each of us take thoughtful inventory about these questions today as we enter what is sure to be an exciting 2024 not knowing when the end might suddenly come.
