A Plague on Just One of the Houses

Exodus 5-14

Exodus 12:1-20

¹ The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt,

² “This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you.

³ Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers’ houses, a lamb for a household.

⁴ And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb.

Exodus 12:1-20

⁵ Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats,

⁶ and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight.

⁷ “Then they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.

⁸ They shall eat the flesh that night, roasted on the fire; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it.

Exodus 12:1-20

⁹ Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted, its head with its legs and its inner parts.

¹⁰ And you shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.

¹¹ In this manner you shall eat it: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the Lord's Passover.

Exodus 12:1-20

¹² For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord.

¹³ The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ “This day shall be for you a memorial day, and you shall keep it as a feast to the Lord; throughout your generations, as a statute forever, you shall keep it as a feast.

Exodus 12:1-20

¹⁵ Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven out of your houses, for if anyone eats what is leavened, from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

¹⁶ On the first day you shall hold a holy assembly, and on the seventh day a holy assembly. No work shall be done on those days. But what everyone needs to eat, that alone may be prepared by you.

Exodus 12:1-20

¹⁷ And you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day, throughout your generations, as a statute forever.

¹⁸ In the first month, from the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

Exodus 12:1-20

¹⁹ For seven days no leaven is to be found in your houses. If anyone eats what is leavened, that person will be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a sojourner or a native of the land.

²⁰ You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwelling places you shall eat unleavened bread.”

An illustration depicting the biblical story of the plagues. On the left, Moses stands with a long beard, wearing a red robe with black and yellow stripes, holding a wooden staff. In the background, two golden pyramids are visible. In the center, a white-bordered box contains the text 'The plagues show that Yahweh is GOD!'. To the right, an Egyptian queen with a green and white striped headdress sits on a yellow throne, holding a green frog. A long, flowing red and blue cloth is draped across the scene. Above her, a large white cloud with a yellow sun behind it is shown, with several white and red objects falling from it. In the foreground, a spotted animal is on an orange pedestal, and another spotted animal is on a similar pedestal to the right.

The plagues show that Yahweh is GOD!

The Passover shows that God is GRACEFUL, but not unconditionally so.

The Passion shows that God is ready and willing to pass over your sin.
