

March 27

1 Corinthians 1:27 (NIV) But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong.

During those three months, Christina poured her heart, time, and soul into helping those children at that orphanage. She traveled the streets getting to know the culture and the people. She began asking every oil corporation in Vietnam to help them build a health care facility for the orphanage. She was turned down time and time again, but she did not give up. At the end of the three-month period, before she had to leave Vietnam, she obtained the funding. Since then, she has helped over 700,000 homeless children, built over 100 shelters, and started the Christina Noble Children's Foundation, which helps children in Vietnam and Mongolia. All of this was made possible because God gave her a dream, and she chose to walk and allow God to lead. God led her to that place, and that changed her life and lives of thousands.

This devotion will be different. Can God use the outcasts, the forgotten, the simple, and the foolish to make a difference in this world? Yes! Can one person make a difference in this world? Yes! Can you make a difference in this world? Yes! Can I make a difference in this world? Yes! If we follow and God leads.
