LIVE A NEW LIFE

Scripture Reading: Romans 6:1-15

Asking “what can I get away with?” is a loser’s mentality. God has so much more for you!

- Romans 6:1, 15

Recognize that we are ruled by something

- Romans 6:6

- Romans 6:12-13a

- Everybody lives for something

- This is why God made the 1st commandment “you shall have no other Gods before me”. When other commandments are broken its because the 1st had already been broken. Sin moves people to live for anything other than God

The Gospel frees you to live a new life

- Romans 6:4

You are called to a deep connection with Jesus! The believer’s past, present and future are secure because of Jesus

- Romans 6:5-6

- Romans 6:9-10

Living out of your real identity is key to change

- Romans 6:11

- See sermon “Who are you Becoming?” from January 7th, 2024

- View yourselves in light of v11! Count yourself. View yourself. Look at yourself like GOD does. Live in God’s reality!

The truth is the believer is alive in Christ, live accordingly!

- Romans 6:13b-14

Reflection Questions

1. We are all “ruled by something”. Is there any unconfessed sin in your life that is holding you back from becoming like Jesus? Repent of those sins and ask the Holy Spirit to help you change.
 2. Change happens when we are connected to Jesus. How is God calling you to grow in your relationship with him? This will happen with consistent time spent in the Word and in community, like groups at church.
