The human awareness that one is deeply flawed and the feeling or emotion that because of her flaws, she cannot receive love and acceptance by God and others. While it is objectively true that humans are deeply flawed and this awareness is an important part of proper self-knowledge, it is the emotion of feeling unworthy of acceptance or love that really qualifies as shame

- Mary Vandenberg, "Shame, Guilt, and the Practice of Repentance: An Intersection of Modern Psychology with the Wisdom of Calvin"

Scripture Reading: Genesis 2:24-3:13

We will experience guilt and shame when we try to meet legitimate needs in illegitimate ways (Genesis 3:6)

Shame moves us to cover up and hide (Genesis 3:7-8)

You are worse than you think you are and at the same time more loved than you could ever imagine

- Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. - 2 Corinthians 7:10

- But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin. - 1 John 1:7

Rat experiment - Nikolaas Tinbergen "Won Nobel Prize" for Ethology

But everything exposed by the light becomes visible—and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. - Ephesians 5:13
