DON'T WAIT FOR SUNDAY

(Worship in Spirit and in Truth)

This means that our words should contain truth and we should obey God's truth and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit in everything we do

- Marty Machowski in Theology (Systematic Theology for Children)

Scripture Reading: John 4:1-26

- Samaritan and Jewish division
- Jesus took them into enemy territory to teach them about worship (John 4:9)
- A prayer: Lord help us to identify the idols in our lives!

- When you spend time with Jesus, he kindly and lovingly exposes what's really happening in our heart (John 4:16-18)
- Let's work through the misconceptions of worship (John 4:19-22)

- Worship in the Spirit and in truth! The Father is looking for worshipers not better communicators or charismatic influencers (John 4:23-24)

- Every Moment Holy - Coffee Liturgy

- Jesus encouraged the disciples to open their eyes and engage in kingdom work now! Don't wait! (John 4:34-36)

- Worship can take many different forms. The Spirit can empower you and God's Word can be a guide as you: workout, take a walk, cook, put a child to bed etc. Invite God into the moment!
- Audio clip of the "Romans Road"

Christ has different doors for entering into different people's souls. Into some, he enters by understanding; into many, by the affections. To some, he comes by way of fear; to another by that of hope; and to this woman he came by way of her conscience

- Charles Spurgeon

- and because of his words many more became believers (John 4:41)

- "The Domestic Monastery"

Time of Reflection

In what ways can you make the "normal" parts of your week acts of worship?

How do I develop a "lifestyle of worship"? How is my worship a witness to others who don't yet know Jesus?
