

8. What kind of pressures do you face that prevent you from sharing your testimony with others?

9. How does knowing that God orchestrates our conversations about Jesus affect the way you view your relationships and everyday encounters? Why?

10. When the believers were scattered to different geographic regions, they did not cease to evangelize. How might you be more ready to share the gospel at a moment's notice?

11. Philip began preaching Jesus to the Ethiopian eunuch from the Scriptures. What Scriptures could you memorize so that you can evangelize in every situation?

Pastor Brian Williams

December 1, 2019

Acts 8:26-40

GOD

He has a _____, even when we don't see it

His love for _____ is amazing

_____ will put us in the right place at the right time

PHILIP

Faith and _____ open doors to the privilege of sharing the gospel

We cannot persuade the _____

We do not want to miss the 'God-moments'

ETHIOPIAN

Life is full of _____

True _____ is found in Christ

Always be asking the question, "What is my next step in my faith journey?"

BIG IDEA OF SUNDAY'S SERMON

Missions and evangelism reveal the love of God for humanity.

QUESTIONS FOR GROWTH

*Describe the most unusual or unexpected situation in which you had a conversation about Jesus. Who initiated the conversation? Why was it so unexpected?

HEAD

Read Acts 8:26-40

1. From the text itself, what did you hear/learn that you did not know before this weekend?
2. How would you describe Philip's response to the Spirit's instructions? What does this tell us about Philip? How is this situation similar to one could you run into in your everyday life?
3. What specific things do we learn about the Ethiopian man in verses 27-28? How did Philip take advantage of this unexpected situation?
4. In his message, Pastor Brian said, "God uses people to save people." How is this statement true and what should it communicate to us?
5. What might have happened if Philip was unprepared to talk about Scripture or unfamiliar with the Isaiah prophecy? What are some specific ways that we can prepare ourselves for encounters such as this? What can we do when we don't have all the answers?
6. What did the man's question in verse 36 convey? How does this reflect a changed heart? What does his example teach us about the importance of next steps such as baptism in the believer's life?
7. Read Romans 10:14–17. Why is evangelism and sending missionaries important in fulfilling the Great Commission?