MINOR PROPHETS, MAJOR TRUTH

MICAH

Pastor Nathan Barton

July 21, 2019

Division of Micah:

- I. The Idolatry of Israel
- II. The Corruption of Israel
- III. The Hope of Israel

PRACTICAL APPLICATION

1. _____ loom when we sin.
2. Seek _____ leadership.
3. God is a God of _____.

What does the Lord require of you but to do _____,
to love _____, and to walk
_____ with your God?

QUESTIONS FOR GROWTH

1. We live in an “instant” society. What are some of your favorite things that you can obtain quickly today? Is this a good or bad thing? Why?
2. Describe a time when you experienced a personal injustice. How did you feel, and how did you respond?

BIG IDEA OF SUNDAY'S SERMON

Despite our sin, God still has a steadfast love for us!

HEAD

Read Micah 1-7

3. From the text itself, what did you hear/learn that you did not know before this weekend?
4. In the message, pastor Nathan said, “The people of Israel cheated on God with the worthless idols, and it was bringing about their destruction.” What does this say about God’s character? Even though God was going to punish them, how is His mercy evident?
5. The rulers of Israel saw everything good as evil and everything evil as good. How does this view compare to our society today? How has this view affected your view of good and evil in your personal life choices daily?
6. Pastor Nathan said, “While we serve a God that delivers justice, we serve a God that still keeps his promises.” What does this mean, and how can this bring hope into your life?
7. How does a believer arrive at the place where his or her desires are more important than God’s? How can these inverted priorities be changed? What steps do you need to take to make sure your priorities are in the right place?
8. What is the real basis for spiritual leadership? Why do people look for other factors as the basis for spiritual leadership?
9. How do you typically respond when facing times of despair, hopelessness, and a dim outlook? How should you respond? How can you learn to respond appropriately?
10. Why do some consider themselves right with God by “going through the motions” of church attendance and saying the right things? Is there an area of your life where you are “going through the motions” spiritually?
