

12. Name one specific challenge that the Apostle Paul went through. How could this one thing be used for “good”?

13. In this verse, Paul gave a very significant condition or caveat for this promise. What is it? How is this verse often misunderstood?

14. Share a specific time or situation from your life in which you can now see how “God meant it for good.”

15. Putting Joseph’s statement and Romans 8:28 together, how should this make the believer feel? Why?

16. Name an area of your life in which you are struggling right now to “be patient.” How can you improve in this area and to whom will you hold yourself accountable?

17. Name one individual that is going through a “Joseph Crisis” right now. How can you come alongside them and encourage them?

QUESTIONS FOR GROWTH

1. Name an aspect of your life in which your perspective as a child was different than your perspective now.
2. Think back over a difficult time in your life. What predominant emotions did you feel during that time?
6. In his message, Pastor Danny said, "Sometimes we suffer because of things we bring on ourselves." In what ways has this been true for you personally and how does it compare to Joseph's situation?
7. What does the fact that it was more than 20 years from the time Joseph was sold into slavery until he rose to second in command of Egypt teach us?

BIG IDEA OF SUNDAY'S SERMON

Be patient and trust God because He sees the big picture.

HEAD

Read Genesis 50:15-21

3. From the text itself, what did you hear/learn that you did not know prior to this weekend?
4. What aspect or event of Joseph's life stood out to you the most? Why?
5. How does Jesus and His moments leading up the cross compare to Joseph's story?
8. Consider this statement, "God will work all things in your life for your good and His glory." How do we tend to misunderstand this statement and what are the consequences of such a misunderstanding?
9. Everyone gets frustrated in life. When does frustration cross the line and become sinful?
10. Define patience. Why is this so hard to do when life isn't panning out as we had hoped?

Read Romans 8:28

11. Paraphrase this verse in your own words and be prepared to share one truth from this verse with the group.
