I don't know why we needed this expect it was to register at school.

Some close to them "please, sit close to him be nice, heads and bless them." "Can't you see Jesus is ben away?" Jesus heard what the disciple said and said to me "Do let the children come to me. Do not hinder them. For the kingdom of heaven is for the little ones in his name. Then he put his hands on their heads and blessed them."

Steven's team play hockey was hilarious. They would fight each other on their feet and we would have to take their skates off and massage their feet. Watching team to get the puck.

And then there was BASEBALL!
 I mostly played catcher.
 Later on I became a coach.
 I took all the courses to qualify as a coach.
 If it weren't for parents, coaching would be enjoyable.

Beating to windward during the championships off Port Moody are Jeff Swadling (No. 12), Steve Swadling (UFO-5), Pam Hortin (123), Ian Cunnings (605), Bobbie Verbaan (6), Mike Clay (813), and Norman Erickson (4). Varying wind and weather gave the young competitors an exciting day.

For some 50 to 60 school-age sailors, taking part will be more important than winning.
 Everyone racing in Saturday's B.C. School Sailing Championships at Port Moody's Old Orchard Park Beach will get a certificate of participation.
 The school regatta, sponsored by Como Lake Sailing Club and the B.C. Centennial Sailing Club, starts at 9:30 a.m. with measurement of competing Sabot class dinghies. A skippers' meeting will be held before the first race starts at 12:30 p.m.
 Elementary and high school children from Lower Mainland and Vancouver Island schools have entered this first B.C. school regatta. Sponsors hope it will eventually draw youngsters from all over the province.

FLUENCY
SUBJECT
STUDENT
ABILITY

Steven is a capable student who has not been working up to his ability. He tends to rush through all his assignments with the result that his work contains too many careless mistakes and his work is messy. Because he does not take the time that he should, his work is filled with poorly constructed sentences, sentences that lack punctuation and capitalization. In his writing I'm encouraging him to write larger and to take time on his letters carefully. In Arithmetic, Steven hasn't put in as much effort as is to be expected. In this area, as he works too quickly and the quality suffers.

I have enjoyed Steven in my classroom this year. He reads quite fluently and has quite a good reading vocabulary. His written work, however, does not show the principles of punctuation, grammar and his handwriting is very messy and untidy.

Steven isn't having any difficulties in Arithmetic. He makes careless errors and he should learn to slow down and get his work done more carefully.

I wish Steven the very best in the future and I hope he has a good summer vacation.

A Word From The Birthday Boy

I want to thank you for being here today and enjoying my birthday with me. Many people said, of course Steve would plan his own birthday, that is the kind of person Steve is. Well the reason you are all here today is so that I could say thank you. Thank you for making my life what it is. God impressed upon my heart when I was 16 the need to work with people; kids and teenagers to be specific. And so I began a life of camp work, teaching school, youth pastor/director/sponsor, coaching both community/school sports, more recently theatre and anything else I could do that impacted people. Today I bring together people from all of the different areas that I have been involved in and I get to see them interact. Look around you, good people everywhere!!

The scholarship fund you have given to is something I have always wanted to do and last year when money was tight and I couldn't pay for as many kids to go to camp as I would have liked John said to me, ask your friends to help. So already almost $1000.00 has been pledged to the fund and there is still time tonight, next week or next month to write a check to help out. You can also put a check or put some cash in the red mailbox located in the barn today if you haven't already donated.

I want to say a big thank you to all who volunteered and who said can I come, can I play, what can I do to help. Wow, I was overwhelmed with your generosity and I pray that the day is fun and a blessing to you too even though you are working and helping out.

I have spent most of my life serving God and trying to be the best example of a Christian that I can be. I have tried to love, care and show through word and action that a life lived for Jesus Christ is a life worth living. He brings me joy, purpose and peace and everyday I get up knowing a new day awaits and new opportunities to love people in Jesus' name. Many of you don't necessarily know the Jesus I love and serve, but I just wanted you to know He is the reason you and I are here today.

So enjoy your day, meet new people, listen to great music, allow yourself to have fun hanging out with the people I love. I leave you with the words I include at the bottom of each email I send out:

Those who love deeply never grow old
They may die of old age, but they die young
Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, English dramatist (1855-1934)

To the world you may be one person
But to one person you may be the world
Anonymous

We must work in the world and the world is thus
No Senior Hunter, thus have we made the world
Thus have I made the world
The Mission

Thank you for being part of my life and for allowing me the privilege of knowing and interacting with you. May God Bless You and Keep You!

TIME

What should I do?

How should I approach Life?

TIME

1. Recognize that you are in a learning season of life.

Proverbs 13:20

“Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm.”

- Asking questions
- Challenging assumptions
- Comparing ideas with the principles in God’s Word
- Build a solid foundation of truth

TIME

2. Remain vigilant around sin.

Romans 13:14

“Put on Christ and make no provision for the flesh and its lusts.”

- We “make provision” when we give our weak and sinful flesh more credit than it deserves.
- Wise people know their own weaknesses and steer clear of situations that might exploit them.

TIME

3. Study. Study. Study.

- Our world is starving for truth. God's Word is the truth it needs (John 17:17).
- The best way to thwart the enemy's deception is to study God's Word for oneself.
- Read it, listen to it, cross-check one verse against another, seek out teachers who thoroughly know and honor God's Word, and apply what you learn.

TIME

4. Slow down your life and listen to God.

Mark 6:31

“Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, “Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest.”

TIME

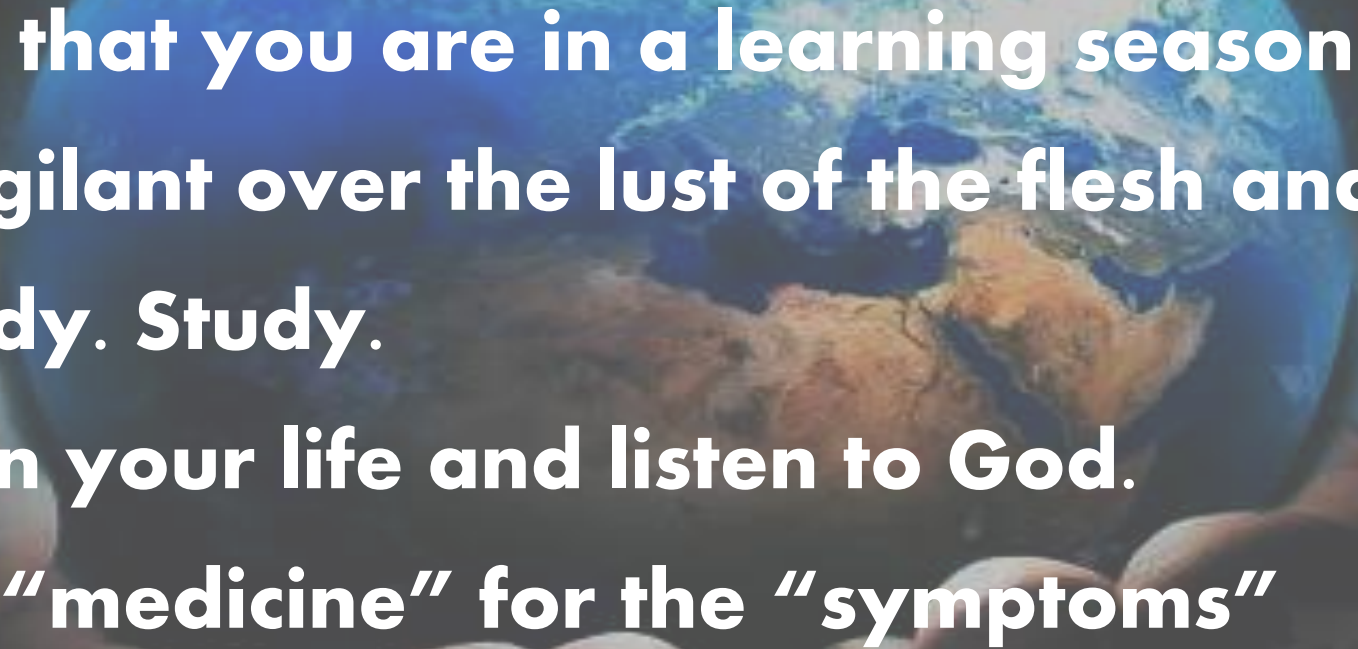

5. Apply the “medicine” for the “symptoms”

Matthew 7:13-14

“Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.”

TIME

REVIEW

1. Recognize that you are in a learning season of life.
 2. Remain vigilant over the lust of the flesh and sexual sin.
 3. Study. Study. Study.
 4. Slow down your life and listen to God.
 5. Apply the “medicine” for the “symptoms”
- A pair of hands is shown from the bottom, cupping a glowing Earth globe. The globe is predominantly blue with white and light blue landmasses, appearing to glow from within. The background is dark and textured, suggesting a night sky or a deep space environment. The hands are rendered in a soft, realistic style, with fingers slightly curled around the base of the globe.

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think youth want to grow up fast?
2. Do you wish you could grow up faster?
3. How does knowing that God does not want you to, rush your life or expose yourself unnecessarily to risky behaviours, change your thinking?
4. What is one way you could slow down your rush to grow up and become more "child like" in your approach to life and your faith in Jesus?
