“To know or to be known”

Psalm 139

You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely.

- When was the last time you had an encounter with Jesus like this woman did?
- When was the last time you poured yourself out like she did?
- When was the last time tears streamed down your face as you expressed your love for him?

Small Group Questions:

- Would you say you know about God or know God?
- Do you think it's possible to really know God? Why or why not?
- What is the difference between knowing about God and knowing God?
- How would someone passionately pursue knowing Christ? How will you pursue Him this week?
- What are some things a person who really wants to know God might do to get to know Him more?
- Have you given Jesus more your heart or your head?
