The image shows a screenshot of a product listing for a Funko Pop! figure of the rock musician Slash. On the left, there is a photograph of the figure in its original packaging, which is a white box with a clear window showing the figure. The box has 'POP! ROCK' branding and the number '51'. The figure itself is a stylized character with long black hair, a black top hat with silver eye-like details, and is holding a yellow and red electric guitar. To the right of the image is a product information panel with a light blue background. It contains the text 'FOB Reference Price: Get Latest Price', 'US $0.1-0.5 / Piece | 1000 Piece/Pieces Large cardboard boxes manufacturers for earphone products (Min. Order)', 'Supply Ability: 1000000 Piece/Pieces per Week Large cardboard boxes manufacturers for earphone products', and 'Port: Shenzhen'. At the bottom of the panel are two buttons: an orange 'Contact Supplier' button and a white 'Start Order' button.

1. Do you think most people just want the benefits of a relationship with God or are they really making sacrifices? How do you think your generation thinks about it differently from your parents' generation?
2. How willing are you to give up comfort? Is your relationship with Jesus comfortable or has it cost you something?
3. Go back to Luke 9:57-62 together. Which excuse can you relate to the most? What cost in following Jesus do you think is the hardest to bear?
4. At the end of your life, would you rather people say "you took it too far" or just took your relationship with Jesus "in moderation"? How can you make sure you end up without regrets in your relationship with God?
5. In what ways has this series motivated you to be a follower and Not a Fan?
