Jeremiah 31:31-34

1. A covenant is sacred kinship bond between two parties, ratified by swearing an oath. An oath is promise that carries a penalty if the promise isn't kept.
2. The New Covenant is an unconditional covenant that God makes and keeps.
3. In the New Covenant, the moral law is so important that the LORD puts it in his people's minds and writes it on their hearts.
4. Under the New Covenant, following the law becomes our desire, an act that flows from a grateful heart, instead of an act that is done to avoid punishment.
5. Worship is the most important thing the church does because it...
 - A. Brings us together with our sacred kinship partner.
 - B. Reminds us of who we are—the bride of Christ
 - C. Reminds us of what God has done and is doing to make us His.
 - D. Feeds us to do everything else the church does.
 - E. This is New Covenant Renewal.
