

A 5-DAY DEVOTIONAL COMPANION

Good News

The Year of the Lord

“...to preach the acceptable year of the Lord.”

Luke 4:19

Written reflections, Scripture, journaling space, and prayers to accompany the audio devotional series

New Life Tabernacle Carrollwood

Welcome

In ancient Israel, the Year of Jubilee began with the blast of a trumpet. Debts were canceled, servants were released, land was restored, and families received back what had been lost. When Jesus stood in the synagogue and announced “the acceptable year of the Lord,” He was sounding that trumpet—and this time, Jubilee was standing in the room.

This written guide is designed to walk alongside the audio devotional. Each day follows the same simple rhythm, so you can listen, read, reflect, and respond at your own pace.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- 1. Listen. Begin with the day’s audio devotional. Let the message settle before you pick up your pen.
- 2. Read. Open your Bible to the day’s passage and read it in full. The key verse is printed for you.
- 3. Reflect. Read the written devotional, then answer the reflection questions honestly in the space provided.
- 4. Respond. Complete the practical step. Healing grows through small, intentional acts of faith.
- 5. Pray. Pray the written prayer aloud, then add your own words.
- 6. Remember. Carry the day’s closing truth with you. Write it somewhere you will see it.

A note before you begin: this devotional is a tool for reflection, not a substitute for pastoral care or professional counseling. If what surfaces feels too heavy to carry alone, please reach out to a pastor or a trusted, qualified counselor.

DAY 5

Jubilee Is Not Just for You

Today's Reading: Galatians 6:2; Acts 2:44–45; Leviticus 25:10 | Audio: Day 5

“Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.”

— Galatians 6:2 (KJV)

“...and ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.”

— Leviticus 25:10 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

Jubilee was never designed to be private. When the trumpet sounded in Israel, it did not announce freedom for one person only—it announced liberty throughout the land. Families were restored. Communities were repaired. Debts were canceled across the nation. The blessing was communal by design.

That matters for us today. The freedom God gives you is real, but it is not meant to stop with you. Your healing can become hope for someone else. Your testimony can become a doorway. Your prayers can strengthen someone too tired to pray. Your generosity can remind someone that God has not forgotten them.

Galatians tells us to bear one another’s burdens. We are not called to watch each other struggle from a distance. We are called to come close—to help carry, to encourage, to pray, to show up. The early church lived this out with radical love. Acts 2 shows believers sharing, giving, meeting needs, and walking together. Life in Christ was never isolated. It was family. It was community. It was Jubilee taking shape among people.

Sometimes we say, “I want my stuff back”—and that is good. There are things God wants to restore in your life. But mature faith also looks around and asks, “Who else needs help getting free? Who else needs encouragement? Who else needs someone to stand with them at the gate?”

Your Jubilee may be the beginning of someone else’s breakthrough. Maybe someone near you is still carrying shame. Maybe someone in your family is exhausted. Maybe a friend is spiritually discouraged. Maybe someone at church, at work, or in your neighborhood needs prayer, support, or practical help. Do not underestimate the power of your presence. Sometimes a phone call is Jubilee. Sometimes a meal is Jubilee. Sometimes sitting with someone in their pain is Jubilee. Sometimes praying boldly with a friend is the sound of the trumpet in their life.

DAY 5 • JOURNAL & RESPONSE

REFLECT

1. Who in your community is still sitting in bondage that your faith, your prayers, and your presence could help set free?

2. Who needs you to reach out—not someday, but this week?

RESPOND: TODAY'S PRACTICAL STEP

Identify one person who is struggling spiritually, emotionally, or practically, then choose how you will reach out this week:

- ☐ Send the message or make the call.
- ☐ Pray with them—not just for them.
- ☐ Offer practical help: a meal, a ride, a hand with something heavy.
- ☐ Simply show up and sit with them.

The person I will reach out to, and when:

DAY 5 • PRAYER

PRAY

Lord Jesus, thank You for the freedom You have given us. Help us not keep it to ourselves. Open our eyes to the people around us who need encouragement, prayer, and support. Make us burden-bearers. Make us restorers. Make us people who carry Jubilee into every room we enter. Let our lives proclaim liberty, not just in words, but in love. Amen.

My own prayer:

REMEMBER THIS

Your Jubilee may be the beginning of someone else's breakthrough.

Going Deeper: Acts 2:44–47 • 2 Corinthians 1:3–4 • Hebrews 10:24–25

Looking Back

Remember: the trumpet has sounded, the reset is real, the box can be sent, your identity is restored, and Jubilee is meant to be shared. Go today in the freedom of Christ.

The trumpet has sounded	Luke 4 — Day 1
The reset is real	2 Corinthians 5 — Day 2
The box can be sent	Isaiah 61 — Day 3
Your identity is restored	1 Peter 2 — Day 4
Jubilee is meant to be shared	Leviticus 25 — Day 5

FINAL REFLECTION

1. Which day spoke to me most deeply, and why?

2. What did God cancel, restore, or rename during these five days?

3. What is one next step of obedience I will take this week?
